INSURRECTOS GATHERING AROUND CHIHUAHUA

CONCENTRATING ALL AVAILABLE POWERS—MOVEMENT FOR PEACE

Paso, Texas, March 30.—All the insurrectos in the field in Mexico are being concentrated around Chihuahua, according to received news.

It is believed by insurrecto sympathizers that the purpose of this move is to allow those who have fought for the insurrecto cause to have a part in the consideration of the terms. That there has been fighting around Chihuahua is indicated by the selection of the cabinet an evidence of good faith on the part of the government. However, the concentration of Mexican forces near Chihuahua would make it possible at immediate movement that city should negotiations.

Insurrectos Are Farmers

Many of the insurrectos are small farmers; they have been in the field for months and have suffered many hardships. As the time for planting crops is now at hand it is thought here they will be willing to return to their farms and await the employment of reforms if assured the cabinet that the administrative improvements already outlined be enacted.

The insurrectos will demand, however, that they retain their arms; that all prisoners taken since the outbreak of the insurrection be released and that the families of those who have fallen in the insurrection be given the same compensation awarded the families of the federal dead.

Another Week Will Tell

NEGRO IS SHOT

NEAR ASHFORD

A telephone message to Sheriff B. O. Hay this morning stated that a negro had been waylaid and shot at the Camp of Mr. W. E. McEachern. The negro was not killed, but it is not known how severe his injuries are.

The shooting took place between 4 and 5 o'clock this morning. The negro was employed by Mr. McEachern, who is the contract to build the county road from Columbia to Ashford, and was returning to the camp when fired upon.

His name has not been learned, but he is supposed to be Will Smart. There is no clue as to who did the shooting. A negro woman is said to be the cause of the trouble.

MR. CHARLES ADAMS

Mr. Charles Adams, a prominent farmer living five miles west of Dothan on Route 1, died at 5:30 yesterday afternoon. Mr. Adams was 54 years old at the time of his death. He is survived by a wife and two children, a daughter living in Ozark, and a son who lived with him. Mr. Adams was a brother of Mr. James Adams, of the Selma neighborhood, and a cousin of Mr. L. L. Reeves of Dothan. It is not known what funeral arrangements have been made.

Madero.

A synopsis of the talk between Jose Limantour, the Mexican Minister of Finance, and Francisco I. Madero Sr. at New York in which tentative proposals were made has been sent to the insurrecto chieftain, at present a day's journey west of the city of Chihuahua. Within a week his answer is expected. He will say the final word as to whether negotiations shall become formal.

"My brother," said Don Alfonso, "if he is convinced of the sincere wish of the government to grant the concessions demanded by the people will appoint envoys to meet the government representatives. Where such a meeting will take place I cannot state. Certainly none of our family would care to visit Mexico without the fullest guarantee for our safety."

AVIATOR AND WIFE FLY IN A STORM

IN TEETH OF GALE COFFINS
FLY TWENTY-THREE MILES
IN 21 MINUTES

Augusta, Ga., March 30.—In a high wind, the violence of which is attested by uprooted trees and property damage throughout this section, Aviator Frank Coffey, of the Wright Brothers staff, accompanied by his young wife, made a flight from Augusta to Aiken, S. C., this morning to keep a breakfast appointment with friends.

No woman in America, under weather conditions of any sort, has ever made a flight of this length, the air-line distance being twenty-eight miles. The time of the flight was twenty-one minutes.

It was found impossible to take a straight course because of the direction of the wind. Several times on the trip it seemed as if landing must be made, but each time no available spot was in sight.

CONDEMNED MURDERER SHOWS REMARKABLE NERVE ON THE GALLIOWS

Pottsville, Pa., March 30.—A remarkable display of nerve was made in the county jail yard here today by Joseph Christock, as he was about to be hanged for the murder of Mrs. Ann Richards. Declining the proffered assistance of a priest and deputy sheriff, the man walked smilingly from his cell to the foot of the gallows and ran lightly up the steps.

It was a public hanging and about the gallows stood 1,500 persons, to whom Christock waved his hand. Then he reached up, grasped the noose and placed it around his neck, put his arms to his side to be strapped and smilingly said:

Good bye, all."

The nifty man then held his head in position for the adjustment of the black cap and in another moment the trap was sprung. He was dead in twelve minutes.

Before going to the gallows, Christock made a full confession, declaring he had shot the woman when he was detected by her attempting to mistreat her daughter. He told of numerous burglaries and highway robberies he had committed in the neighborhood and wound up the confession by saying he deserved to be hanged for his crimes. He joked of death to the very end.

A LIVER MEDICINE THAT BEATS CALOMEL

Dodson's Liver Tonic Does the Same Work as Calomel without Making You Sick. It is Vegetable, Tastes Good and Never Fails.

Everybody who has ever taken calomel knows what a strong drug it is. Calomel spurs the liver as if it were a tired horse, and while the liver works harder for a little while, it is soon weaker than ever.

Dodson's Liver Tonic is a vegetable tonic that gently induces the most sluggish liver to work. Taking it is followed by no bad after effects. No restriction of habit or diet necessary. For either children or grown people. Nix Drug Company sells a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic for 50 cents and guarantees it to be a perfect substitute for calomel and will give your money back if it disappoints you.

PROMOTION VIOLATOR IN PRISON STRIPES

SEVEN SELMIANS PUT TO WORK ON COUNTY ROADS. SENTIMENT MANIFEST.

Selma, Ala., March 30.—Downed in regulation prison stripes, seven well known citizens of Selma were sent out to work on the public roads of Dallas county this morning following their conviction yesterday in the circuit court on charges of violating the prohibition laws.

The conviction and the length of their sentences follows:

George Campbell and Nick Lakors, twenty days; Rufus Campbell, James Campbell, C. E. Logan, Tim O'Flann and Sam McVillard, thirty days.

The seven men went to the convict camp across the river yesterday afternoon in automobiles and this morning donned suits of stripes and began to serve out the sentences which were imposed upon them. There was some talk among some citizens today of circulating a petition to get Governor O'Neal to pardon the men but that idea was soon abandoned when it was found that it would take thirty days before the matter could go before Governor O'Neal, and that the men would have finished their sentences then.

Think Punishment Severe.

Several of the most ardent prohibitionists of the city today expressed their opinion that the punishment was rather severe. It is a common expression on the streets also that a person will fare better in the Circuit Court of Dallas county on the charge of murder than he would for violating the prohibition laws.

All of the seven men who were sentenced to work on the roads of the county are well known residents of Selma. Six of the seven are married men and the most of them have children. With the exception of the charges upon which they were sentenced yesterday they have been good citizens of Selma, Dallas county and the State, and there are few in Selma but sympathize with them in their present trouble. It was understood this afternoon that some effort upon the part of some citizens will be made to get Judge Miller of the Circuit Court of Dallas county to repeal the sentence of hard labor if it is in his jurisdiction to do so.

Stoneberg Sentenced.

The jury in the case of Sam Rosenberg, charged with violating the prohibition laws late this afternoon rendered a verdict fining the defendant $250. Judge Miller also imposed a sentence of sixty days hard labor on the county roads. Through his attorney Rosenberg will appeal to the higher courts from the verdict and sentence.

NO CLUE FOUND IN SHORTTOWN CASE

Sheriff B. O. Hay has returned from Shorttville, where he went to investigate a case of burglary reported from that place yesterday morning.

The store of Henry Hayes, five miles from Shorttville, on the Columbia road, was entered and the safe robbed. Something over three hundred dollars in cash was secured. No merchandise has been missed from the store and it is believed that the burglars confined their operations to the safe.

A hole about five by ten inches was made in the side of the safe. A coal chisel was used for this purpose. The burglars were evidently familiar with the safe, or safes of that type, as the cut in just at the spot to get the cash box. They could not get the cash box out or cut into it with the tools that they had. So they prised the back down, forcing the front end up and bringing the door into view. Mr. Hayes had left the key in the door. The rest was easy.

A peculiar feature of the robbery is reported in that the burglars used a chisel and hatchet belonging to Mr. Hayes. One they found in the store and the other was taken from the buggy house near by.

The burglars were tracked for some distance down the road in the direction of Fort Gaines. The trail was lost among the many tracks made by passing people and vehicles. The dogs were useless as the trail was over twelve hours old when the sheriff arrived. There is no clue as to who the guilty parties are.

CLERK ACCUSED OF PADDING

Atlanta, Ga., March 30.—John J. Blodgett, Chief Clerk of the Atlanta office of the railway mail service, was indicted today by a federal grand jury for "padding" his expense accounts.

It is charged that Blodgett turned in hotel bills which he had never contracted and kept the money. The illegal vouchers are alleged to have been made out in Montgomery, Birmingham, New Orleans, Greensboro and Charlotte. The sum involved is only a few hundred dollars.

CHAUTAQUA FOR DOOTHAN ASSURED

STOCKHOLDERS MEETING THIS MORNING PUT PLANS ON FOOT.

The Southeast Alabama Chautauqua Association held a meeting this morning in the office of Pace & Chapman, at which a majority of the stock was represented, and plans were put on foot that will give Dothan another Chautauqua this spring.

Capt. A. E. Pace was elected president; W. R. Chapman vice-president; W. C. Strickland, treasurer, and L. G. Biggers re-elected secretary.

The appointment of the various committees was delegated to the president, and they will be made known later, and put to work.

Mr. Biggers reported the amount of stock subscribed, or tickets sold, and several hundred dollars more are subscribed than was last season.

The meeting will be held in May, an ideal season of the year, and a committee is to go to Florida tomorrow to confer with Mr. Davidson as to the program. The program will be gotten up at once, and the various committees will take active charge of the work and push it through. But few weeks remain, and naturally the work must be done quickly.

The prospect for good attractions this season are much better than it was last year.

The Woman's Missionary Society failed to have their regular program last Monday.

They will have it next Monday instead.

The meeting will be at 8:00 o'clock.

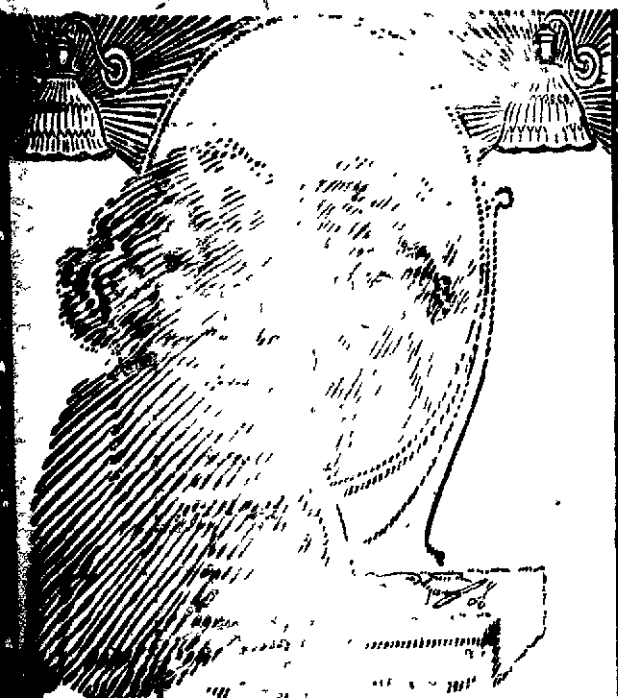

Mrs. Gbent assisted by others, will lead the meeting, and it is very much desired that we have a good attendance, and make it a splendid meeting.

We give as a Society, to Foreign Missions during April.

Let every one make a special effort this month in order that we may reach our full appointment.

Mrs. G. M. Malone.

President.

It is possible that since the fire in the state capitol in New York, that the legislature can pick out a senator.

The police of Montgomery have raided a fortune telling dive, and it is now expected that the legislature will get down to business.

Just as soon as the chautauque arrangements are made, we want to know what is to be done about a baseball team for Dothan.

Oklahoma has discovered the hope of the white race, and we suggest that no time be lost in hurrying the ruffian to San Francisco before Jack Johnson gets out of jail.

There have been several thousand dry loads of dirt moved from place to place in this town during the last few months and it isn't placed where they want it yet.

So far as prejudice goes, Governor O'Neal promises to be as faithful as Mr. Comer was. He remembers some of his friends, but his memory is hardly as good as was Comer's.

If that hope of the race spoken of in Oklahoma falls down in his laudable undertakings, we might take it up with Mr. Ulrich, of New York City.

New York will turn around a few weeks over the question of fire trap buildings, as they did in the St. Louis disaster, and they will raise a lot of money by public subscription, but nothing will come of it.

American millionaires market is so strong, till England has decided to double the output of pears. If our girls consume the delivery, then England can call a special session and double the force again.

On April the first, the authorities of Birmingham are going after the house fly. All places where food stuff is kept for sale must have screen doors, and dealers who fail to observe this will be dealt with severely.

You can find women who are never satisfied unless they are running a boarding house or a hotel, and you can find men—plenty of them—who feel like that some time they will lay off and get rich in the poultry business.

Editor Kolsaat, the millionaire editor of the Chicago Record-Herald, says that $100,000 was used in bribing the legislature for Lorimer, and they are trying to show that President Taft joined in with the gang to elect Lorimer.

He didn't say it in so many words, but the governor plainly let the Birmingham delegation of business men know that he expected to stand by Colonel Bowman, till satisfaction was made, and that he would keep the legislature in session till the people cried "Hallelujah."

The Atlanta Journal says the people need somebody to drink them off these spring mornings. They may up in Alabama, where people never feel fit, but down in Alabama, the air is cool and fresh in the morning, one really needs an emergency brake and slow gear, to keep from overdoing things.

After looking back over the many years that Dr. Elliot has been among us, he says that nothing has contributed so much to his good health as moderation in eating. American people can be temperate in almost anything else, but when it comes to eating, they are like some Alabamians who believe in personal liberty—they eat what they please till Old Dyspepsia chokes them off.

Kansas has some good ideas. It being a great farming state, naturally it has a string of agricultural schools, even as Alabama has. The people are confronted with a bill, requiring holders of these grade teachers' licenses to stand an examination in agriculture, or down and out he goes. It must be practical knowledge, too, and not something picked out of the text books. If such a requirement were made in Alabama among the teachers in the various so-called agricultural schools, there would be some stirring around among them.

NEGRO WOMEN AS SUFFRAGISTS

All party Socialists are suffragists; a great many suffragists are Socialists. The Socialists in the North have held so-called "miscegenation" dinners at which they sat down with negroes and toasted each other upon the day when races would be joined by ties of blood, and the color line between the races would be merged into one neutral tint. We are not surprised, therefore, at the announcement that leaders of the woman suffrage movement are planning to give a social entertainment to negro women of Harlem, whom they would recruit with the women suffrage party.

It is important, not only for their social and racial integrity, but for their physical well-being, that the white and the black races should live apart. Their hybridization leads to the forming of a degenerate type; anthropologists declare that some of the most cruel and treacherous specimens of humanity are to be found among "mottled" negroes in the South. If the women suffragists wished to gain converts for their cause in the states lying south of the Mason and Dixon line, they have gone about it in a queer way.—From the New York Times, February 23rd.

JUST NO-NO

We haven't enough rich people in Dothan to begin to get dissatisfied with the society here.

Our people grew up here with the town most of them, or some other town near by, and as yet, they have found but little time for anything save money making, and home building.

Occasionally some one moved in here from some other place, and tacks on something new, but it isn't radical enough to upset the society to any noticeable degree.

It is mighty pleasant to live in a town where you can call nearly everybody by their first names without getting a cold stare.

As for the future, we know not what it will bring. Of course, we are on the move all the time, and not marking time; and there may come a period when the bridge clubs, the as-you-like-its, and four o'clock teas and various and sundry other kill-time organizations may introduce some new fangled ways. But that will be after we grow up an idle class. A busy people never has time for fads and foolishness.

The finest place to live is right here, once you get used to it, and that doesn't take long.

DIED AMONG STRANGERS

On Tuesday of this week, while the people of Dothan who had been blessed with an abundance of this world's goods, were out in their automobiles enjoying the spring sunshine and flowers, or visiting the fashion shops of the city selecting costly habits and expensive millinery, in a cottage on the outskirts of Dothan an aged lady lay dying.

She had not lived in this city long, having moved here from a neighboring town a few months ago. Bent with the weight of nearly four score years, worn from a life of toil and afflicted with the pains of rheumatism, the tired feet had stumbled, a heavy fall resulted, and now she lay crippled on a bed from which she knew she would never arise. A stranger in a busy city where she feared no one took thought of the needy or distressed, her thoughts went back to the friends who had left at home, friends who had often proven their worthiness of the name.

Calling her daughter, with whom she lived, to her side, she said: "I am dying. How I do wish that I could die at home among my friends. You are not able to buy me a coffin, the people here do not know us, so I will have no coffin to be buried in. If I was at home my friends would give me one and I could die peacefully." "Do not worry about that, mother," the daughter replied. "The people of Dothan are good people and will surely give you a coffin." The weary heart seemed comforted, the tired eyelids closed and no doubt the angels came down to bear the dear old soul to the City whose streets are paved with gold.

A neighbor heard of the death and the circumstances surrounding it. A telephone message conveyed the information to an up-town office. In a short while a neat coffin was delivered at the home of mourning. Christen hands had provided a home for her earthly remains, while a loving father had provided an eternal rest, you people who complain of not being able to buy an automobile! Consider one who wished to die among friends because she had no means with which to purchase a coffin.

APPORTIONMENTS FOR THE COUNTY SCHOOLS

The County Board of Education met Wednesday and finished the apportionment of the public school funds to the various districts of the county, which were begun in the fall.

Following is a complete list of the appropriations from all funds available for this year including General Fund, County Special Fund and poll tax.

The board had estimated that there would be money enough from all sources to run the schools seven months, but owing to the higher salaries paid teachers, and the increased number of assistants which have been provided for in quite a number of the rural schools, they have been unable as was their wish, to give all the schools the seven months term. They believe that the apportionments as made to which they have given a great deal of care and thought, is the wisest distribution possible with the money at their disposal.

AS AN EXAMPLE

We submit the following as an example of some stuff carefully copied from another. No name to it, but it is sent to the Eagle through the mail under the heading "The Song of the Autoist," with a delicate feminine line penned under the title, "By a Poeticus."

Now you shall see if you ever read it before, and where:

You may talk about your airship,
And your dirigible balloon,
You may sing of soaring skyward
And of flying to the moon.
We no doubt the air is bracing
As you cleave the ethereal sphere,
But give to me my auto,
And a road that's straight and clear,
And you are welcome to your airship,
And the balloon that you can steer.

It may be that I am lacking,
To a remarkable degree,
That fine, high poetic fancy
Which always yearns to be made free
From this earth, and all that's earthy
And to soar 'tween sky and cloud
On imagination's pinions—
Must confess I like a crowd,
Not for me dim, silent places,
But folks and noise that's good and loud.

On some cool crisp day in autumn,
When the air's like rare old wine,
Just to speed thru country by-ways,
In this good old car of mine,
Fill'd with friends congenial, jolly,
By my side my own dear girl,
With sparkling eyes and cheeks like roses,
Unafraid of maddest whirl,
Round the road's swift, sudden turnings,
I'd not change places with an earl!

Of the Fates I crave not riches,
Nor that light, airy bauble, Fame;
Just enough of filthy lucre,
And sand enough to play the game,
Just a place on life's great speedway.
In the race we all must run,
With my true friends my companions—
And you, dear, dearest one,
On the front seat here beside me,
Till the Race of Life is done!

Mrs. B. F. Reid returned last night from Montgomery, where she spent several days with her daughter, Miss Ida, who underwent an operation at an infirmary at that city.

A Short Story for the School Children

Once there was a large shoe factory that offered a prize of $10,000 for a name for the best child's school shoe they were making. And as they wanted a very catchy name, hence they offered the prize, and as the time drew near, a very appropriate name suggested itself to a little school girl (Nine O'Clock). So she sent the name to the committee and when they had carefully gone over all the others, they came to the little girl's. They all decided at once that she had won hence Nine O'Clock school shoes is the leading brand of Children's shoes in America today.

We have these shoes on display at our store in the very latest styles low cuts, gun metal and patent leather for boys and girls, and we are going to give every boy and girl that comes to our store a nice little booklet entitled, History of the U. S. Flag.

We are also going to give away to the schools the largest and prettiest flag that you ever saw, come to our store and we will tell you about low we are going to do this.

Points of Mitchell—Superiority

FIRST: The engine is quieter than any other make. So much so that, during a demonstration, when on high gear, we defy you to detect any noise whatever from the engine.

SECOND: We can shift our gears on the 1911 transmission quicker and easier than on cars. This transmission is also noiseless—no clashing of gears.

THIRD: The Mitchell engine is one of the most efficient engines made, developing more horse power per gallon of gasoline used. This was recently demonstrated by winning first place among American manufacturers as decided on by the Chicago Automobile Club.

These are only a few of the advantages. We could speak of the titled engine—straight line drive—offset crank shaft—accessibility—and dozens of other points, but ask to personally see them.

gerous kidney and bladder trouble resulting from years of railroad work. Geo. E. Bell, 639 Third Street, Fort Wayne, Ind., was many years a conductor on the Nickel Plate. He says: "Twenty years of railroad work left my kidneys in terrible condition. There was a continual pain across my back and hips and my kidneys gave me much distress, and the action of my bladder was frequent and most painful. I got a supply of Foley's Kidney Pills and the first bottle made a wonderful improvement and four bottles cured me completely. Since being cured I have recommended Foley's Kidney Pills to many of my railroad friends." Sold by N. H. McCallum. 11

Direct from the sun-kissed cotton fields

Cottolene is pure in its source; it comes from the cotton fields of the Sunny South, and is made from pure, refined cotton oil.

Cottolene is manufactured in a cleanly manner, amid the most favorable sanitary surroundings.

Cottolene is packed in a manner that absolutely insures its freshness and prevents it from absorbing dust and odors of the grocery. We have such faith in our patent air-tight, friction-top pail that we guarantee Cottolene to be fresh and satisfactory, and your grocer will refund your money if you find it otherwise.

Cottolene is worth more per pail than any imitation, because it is richer, will give a third more light, and is most economical. Why take chances with inferior imitations?

The Sound Sleep of Good Health

Can not be over estimated and any ailment that prevents it is a menace to health. J. L. Southern, Eau Claire, Wis., says: "I have been unable to sleep soundly nights, because of pains across my back and soreness of my kidneys. My appetite was very poor and my general condition was much run down. I have been using Foley Kidney Pills but a short time, and now sleep as sound as a rock, my general condition is greatly improved, and I know that Foley Kidney Pills have cured me." Sold by N. H. McCallum. 61

BOY KILLED WHILE HUNTING

Mobile, Ala., March 30.—News was received here today from Foley, Ala., of the accidental death of Arthur Allright, 14 years old, of Chicago, who was wintering at that place.
While hunting about eight miles from Foley yesterday afternoon, he placed a double-barrelled shotgun against a tree. The gun slipped down and exploded, a load of bird-shot tearing the top of his head off.
The body, accompanied by his brother, was shipped to Chicago today.

A Reliable Medicine—Not a Narcotic

Mrs. F. Marti, St. Joe, Mich., says:
"Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in which I have great faith.
It cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells, and he is well in a short time." Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house."
Sold by N. H. McCallum. 61

By a Test Case

A butler came into the doctor of a West African missionary settlement, bringing his reluctant wife with him, says Success.
"Doctor," pull one of my wife's teeth out," said he.
The doctor examined the woman's mouth and found only sound teeth.
"Oh, that makes no difference," said the interested negro. "If it doesn't hurt too much, you can pull my tooth that is aching."

Damning Evidence

Madam," says the agent of the black hand, according to Life, "we have a photograph of you and Count de Gayleigh riding in an automobile.
Send $10,000 to us or we will publish the picture."

"What care I?" haughtily says the lady. "The Count is a gentleman in every way and, besides, he is going to marry my daughter. There can be no scandal connected with my riding with him."

"That's not the point. It was an 1908 model car."
With a low moan the unfortunate woman sank to the floor, after giving a feeble indication that on reviving from her faint she would write a check for the hush money.
